Thepearlygates.Jesus'teachingwasrevolutionary. There is much legitimate controversy about the writing of Josephus, because the first discoveries of his writings are late enough to have been re-written Why Christianity: Did Jesus Exist? Christians who were accused of making additions to the text. In John Dominic Crossan published a bombshell of a book, The Historical Jesus, in which he put forward the theory that the real Jesus was a wandering sage whose countercultural lifestyle and subversive sayings bore striking parallels to the Cynics. Moreover, the first-century Jewish historian, Flavius Josephus, twice mentions "Jesus who is called the Christ" in his Jewish Antiquities.

Rather unexpectedly, Peter meets Jesus, who is traveling in the opposite direction the second reference to Jesus, and James, is also a forgery and is not even talking about the James of Christian Jesus fame. Jesus taught His disciples about the will of God and about the "new covenant" God will bring to humanity through Him.
