Dina Friedman Review by Dana Cohlmeier. Tante Rosa tells Halina, "We don't talk about the past."
View 2 comments. The Nazis had taken most of our possessions. His name was Grisha Rudowski. When I told her about the rocks I had to leave behind, she told me I could take a shell from her, whatever shell I wanted. I couldn't take Mama's china. The strength of the human spirit is infinite. I would have sung one last song for .
