Refreshandtry.Thatwasnotneededatalleither,unlesstheauthorwastoexp Definitely going down as a favorite Christmas story for me, even with its unusual setting. Rationale for inclusion: Gaylactic Spectrum award ; Fan favorite see: Listopia. As well as the fact that the author keeps rushing these books out, without truly reading through it all.

For a shorter story that captures the magic of the holiday season, Exit Through the Underworld is a disappointment. For the underwater scenes, I expected to be blown away. Galen and Emma's romance is hindered only by this idea that Emma belongs to his brother who doesn't even know she exists and is resolved in a slap-dash way only for the book to reach the end, and the obligatory cliffhanger which you probably would have seen from a mile off.
