The language of the text is clear enough for grade-school children yet is consistently and technically accurate and informative. Although stained glass adorned the windows of churches and homes for centuries, it was designer Louis Comfort Tiffany who raised this craft to a distinctive decorative art in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. EnglishOnly. I think this is an okay book, not the best, but it is amusing. Louise added it Aug 29, Visit Seller's Storefront. NewReleases.Filter Results.
