Pamela Girauda drama in five acts, was first presented in the Gaité Theatre, Paris, September 26, After the fatal night on which Fernand was carried off from me, an eternal separation. The Marriage Contract. Mademoiselle de Vaudrey Inez, who is engaged to your son, the marquis? They keep me in the dark; I am neither trusted nor tipped. Titles and families are in some confusion on account of the change of dynasties. Yet in the midst of the disaster which the energy of government has caused, but which the slightest sagacity in the world might have prevented, the author has found some compensation in the testimony of public sympathy which has been given .
