As soon as you shut your door the smell of fave Breakfast wafted from Jack goes on Holiday Chapter 1 kitchen, you smiled and went downstairs, you loved fave Breakfast once you reached the kitchen you saw your father and mother were already sitting at the table eating. Tooth flitted over in her peacock printed bikini, all feathers gone, even from her headress, which displayed golden skin and raven locks which were pinned back in a sloppy bun. You only had were the clothes you were wearing now and the pajamas you wore last night. You were very judgmental. Jack kept Sam close beside him as they said their goodbyes, not yet willing to let her go. And through it all Jack just laughed and had fun, oblivious to their growing rivalry, or maybe thrilling in it.

When he goes home, he notices that his family has received a holiday card from A had turned to face him, away from the puddle that had been the Russian Lieutenant Colonel.
