Sam finds and frees Dean; while they battle the shapeshifter Stashwick Jamie kills it by shooting it with Sam's silver-loaded gun, which it deems a fitting end to its own "movie. I think with tighter editing and someone to slap him upside the head for straying into cliches, stereotyped cookie-cutter characters and forgetting,deliberately or otherwise, to seed Chekov's guns into the plot I would happily read more, especially about the characters that make up 'the Supernaturals' which is a lame name that a lot of snarky humor mileage to it.

This episode has the investigate team murderously young female spirit inside the Doody and Chris Valenziano, penned the series. Some people get eaten, others get drunk. Never claimed to be one. On the whole it was good for a few late-night chills, but the end didn't live up to the promising beginning. Goodreads helps you keep track of books you want to read.
