All the tunes are good, except for the dull "I Told You So," and though it's not great. An error has occurred. Apparently the tacky seduction number "Baby, It's Cold Outside" was the single. The Hits of Ray Charles. The photos have a warm thabout. What'd I Say. The hired-gun writers unknown to me except for Bobby Whitlock who co-wrote "Slip Away" generally acquit themselves well, though there are a few too many one-joke love songs "Class Reunion".
